Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter,

Following a meeting last week between representatives of the Foreign Documents Branch of CIA and the Research and Intelligence Organization of the Department of State, discussions have been held between representatives of the Division of Research for Far East, Department of State and members of the Far Eastern Division of the Foreign Documents Branch, CIA. Arrangements have been agreed upon informally for the procurement and exploitation by the Foreign Documents Branch of [redacted] in behalf of the Department of State.

It is requested that such service be provided on a continuing basis, subject to modifications from time to time as agreed upon between working representatives of the two agencies.

Sincerely yours,
/s/

Allan Evans
